

Ethanol is:

A high performance fuel made from corn

One bushel of corn is:

56 pounds

The only living part of the seed is:

Germ

Approximately how much of every bushel of corn processed by an ethanol refinery is returned back to livestock feed?

Corn can be loaded onto large, flat boats called a _____ and hauled down the river:

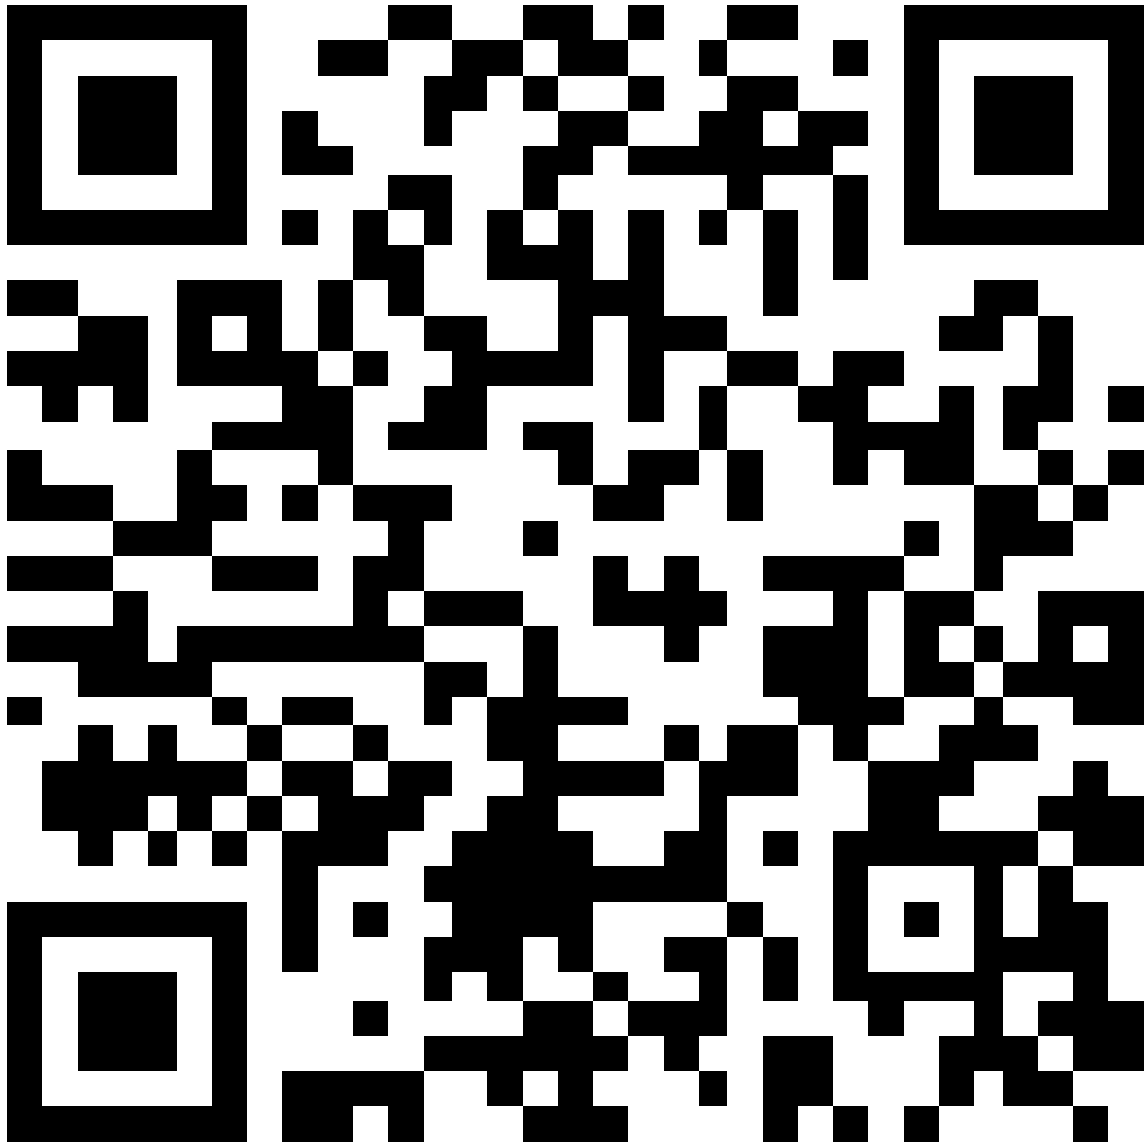

Barge

Which kind of corn do we directly eat off
the cob:

Sweet Corn

Corn can be used for:

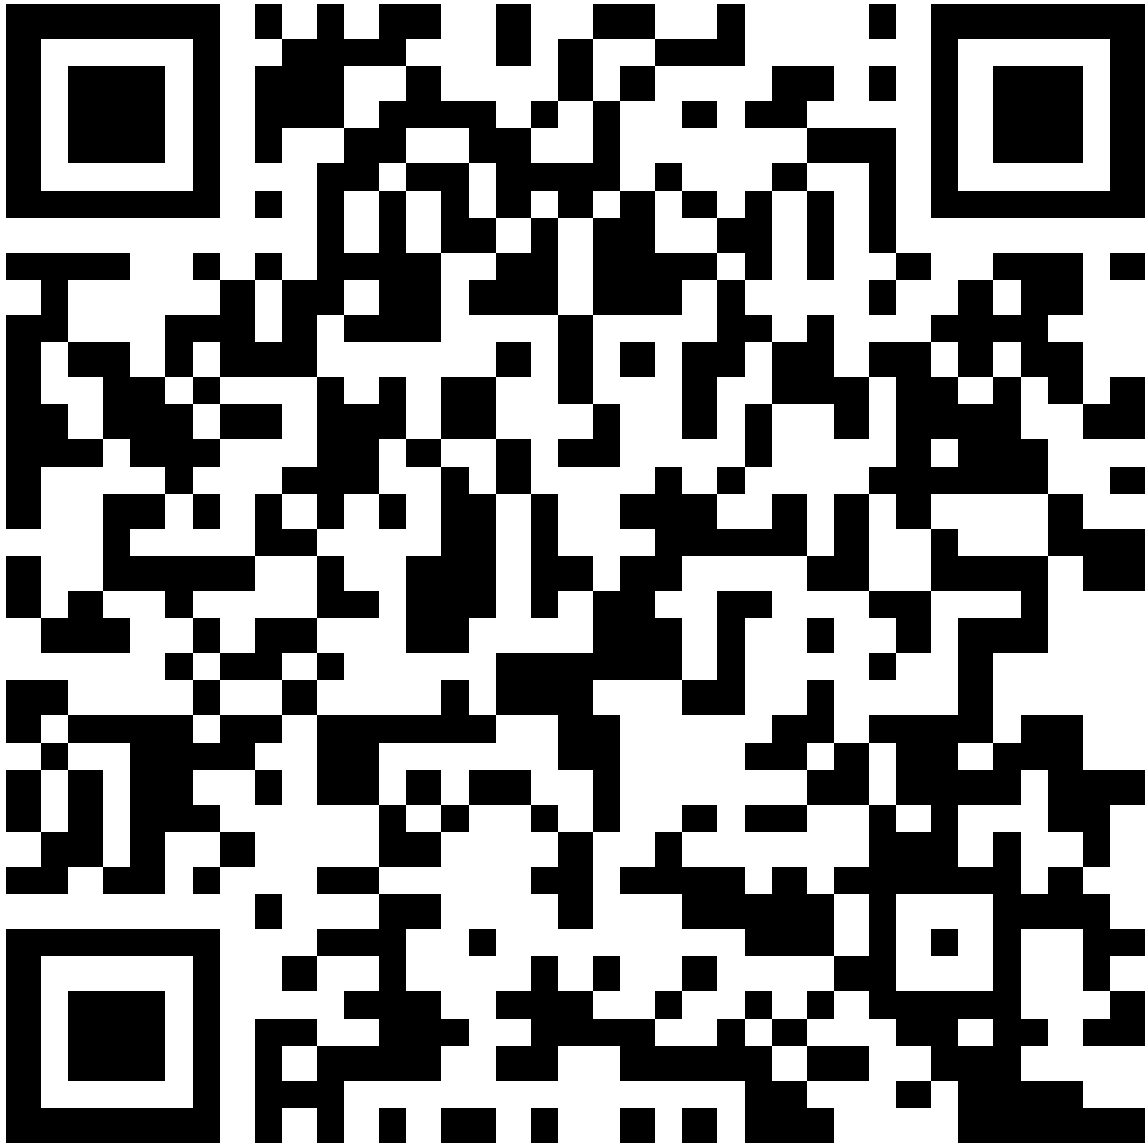

Plastic, cereal, and cosmetics

What percent of family farms in America are family owned?

95%

What is the nickname given to the area where most of the corn is grown?

The Corn Belt

Corn can be made into a special plastic that will break down into little pieces that become part of the soil. This type of product is called:

Biodegradable